I really tried to give this game a chance, the controls are clunky as all hell, the graphics range from passable to garbage, the gameplay is clunky and it's near impossible to take down enemies with all the jank. The enemies run straight towards you in an awkward fashion, all the technical issues make the game near impossible even on the easy setting. If you want a good game like this check out Hypercharge Unboxed or The Mean Greens, both of those games are around the same price as this and are infinitely better. The Mean Greens is multiplayer combat, Hypercharge Unboxed is wave based co-op/singleplayer. I wanted to like this game but it's just too flawed and there are better free games out there than this, If you want a free game similar and better than this google World Of Padman. It's a free, open source, bot supported multiplayer game. All of the games I listed have you play as a toy like this game.. good game :)!!!. This game has an absolute bare minimum amount of content to be considered a game but I still can't help but enjoy it. It'd be great to be able to block or even spar but I have a feeling this isn't one of those games that ever gets updated.. This is a great game for anyone who wants a ton of achievements instantly. This game is pretty fun!. Recommendation - Not so much (After about 5 + hours)

I love Space Sims so I try a new one every now and again. This is not Freespace2, Freelancer, Wing Commander or the Alpha of Star Citizen. This is a mission to mission game where a single failure and you cannot move on.

Pros

1. Easy to play

Cons

1. On the rail format for story - (You pass or fail a mission but cannot move on if you fail)
2. No customization for ships.
3. No choice for load out.
4. Cardboard props for characters.
5. No interest in re-play.
6. Voice acting... Meh.

So why should you play. Well to be honest if you need to blow stuff up without caring of story or characters than this can get you by.. Really great design and game atmosphere! The music also fits nicely and I like how the windows turn red when enemies are close. It's hard to describe really. I also like that you can set the random seed for the levels manually.

The game is lacking depth in the long run but it's absolutely fine when you get it on sale!

Would be nice to see this concept taken further into a full game.

What got me raging a bit was the item picking mode. Sometimes it picks the wrong item, even if you are really careful. That cost me a bunch of lives.. Love this game, simply a HD version of Asteroids!

Just like what it says: Get in, get out, get paid.. whats the points of this stupid game, i dont see any excitement to it thumbs down, Not Recommended. This was a very nice add on!. Short and sweet!

Also good settings for a visual novel type of game.

Also Steam didnt register my minutes when internet broke.. i really love this nice game and i never tired from playing this is my love and can be your love too

+nice gameplay

+nice heroes

+nice level design

+nice puzzles

+nice achievement

+nice secrets

+nice enemies

and finally nice ♥♥♥♥ing ending (lol)

100% recommended

11/10

need money for part 2

plz donate me (lmao)
